23 Defendant.)
24 _____)

25 With the agreement of the parties, and with the consent of defendants John Terzakis,
26 Robert Estupinian, and Peter Ye (collectively, the “defendants”), the Court enters the following
27 order regarding scheduling in the above referenced matters:

28
SCHEDULING ORDER
CR 09-01212 DLJ
CR 10-00044 DLJ

1 The defendants have individually entered plea agreements with the government to resolve
 2 the above referenced matters. Pursuant to the terms of the plea agreements, the parties agree that
 3 the Court will resolve certain factual issues relevant to the calculations provided for in the United
 4 States Sentencing Guidelines. In particular, the Court is asked to decide the loss amount
 5 attributable to each defendant arising from the scheme to defraud (U.S.S.G. § 2B1.1), as well as
 6 the leadership roles of defendants John Terzakis and Robert Estupinian (U.S.S.G. § 3B1.1). Mr.
 7 Estupinian and Mr. Ye also reserved the right to challenge the application of the abuse of 8 position of trust enhancement (U.S.S.G. § 3B1.3).

9 The matters are currently set for sentencing on June 28, 2012. While the parties have 10 been working to resolve the disputed factual issues, especially as it relates to the determination of 11 the loss amount, it is apparent that an evidentiary hearing will be needed prior to the sentencing
 12 of the individual defendants. Therefore parties stipulate and propose the following schedule for 13 sentencing:

15	June 28, 2012	Evidentiary hearing on Sentencing Guidelines issues. The government anticipates calling a Special Agent from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as well as up to four Vesta victims/depositors. Each defendant may call its own witnesses. The government requests three hours for the presentation of its evidence, and approximately three hours for defense cross-examination and presentation of evidence.
18	July 26, 2012	Hearing on Sentencing Guidelines issues. The parties respectfully request the Court would issue its rulings on this date with respect to the disputed Sentencing Guidelines issues. The parties agree that any further evidence to submit for the Court's consideration of the Sentencing Guidelines issues shall be filed with the Court no later than July 19, 2012.
22	August 23, 2012	Draft Presentence Reports for each defendant distributed to the parties.
23	September 27, 2012	Victim allocution and sentencing of defendant John Terzakis.
24	October 11, 2012	Sentencing of defendant Robert Estupinian.
25	October 25, 2012	Sentencing of defendant Peter Ye.
26	//
27	//
28	//

1 The proposed schedule takes into consideration the time needed by the defense to prepare
2 for the evidentiary hearing, as well as the availability of counsel over the summer months.
